DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 1-3, 9-11 and 16 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: compounds having an amino group. The species are independent or distinct because the disclosed compounds having amino groups belong to different classes of biomolecules. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of compound of amino group, if it is a peptide the peptide sequence along with the Seq ID No., corresponding to the peptide should be indicated, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Claims 1, 8-11 and 17 generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: different species of polyaminocarboxylic acids. The species are independent or distinct because the disclosed molecules have distinct chemical structures. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of polyaminocarboxylic acid, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1654

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
